Individuals	Disaster Unemployment Assistance	California Employment Development Department (EDD)	The Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA) program provides temporary unemployment assistance to individuals whose work or self-employment is interrupted due to a major disaster. This includes employees, farmworkers, and business owners who may not normally qualify for regular state-provided unemployment benefits.	The EDD will first check to see if applicants can qualify for regular state unemployment benefits, and if not, process the claim for federal disaster benefits. Business owners or self-employed individuals who are ineligible for state unemployment benefits may qualify for DUA. Those whose unemployment benefits have run out, but are still unemployed due to the disaster may also file a claim for DUA.	Application deadline is December 18, 2017 or may be extended with proof of good reason for not meeting the deadline.	Presidential Emergency or Disaster	The fastest and easiest way for people to apply for DUA is to use EDD's online application, "eApply4UI", which is available in both English and Spanish. www.edd.ca.gov/unemployment/Disast-Unemployment_Assistance.htm English: 1-800-300-5616 Spanish: 1-800-326-8937 Cantonese 1-800-547-3506 Mandarin 1-866-303-0706 Vietnamese 1-800-547-2058 TTY (non-voice) 1-800-815-9387

Individuals	Disaster Assistance and Emergency Relief Program for Individuals and Businesses	U.S. Department of Treasury	If you have damaged or lost property in an area declared a federal disaster by the President, you may be able to get money back from the IRS right now. Individuals and businesses in a federally declared disaster area can get faster refunds by claiming disaster losses on their tax return for the prior year. You can usually do this by filing an amended return.	Individuals who reside or have a business in Los Angeles, San Diego, Santa Barbara and Ventura Counties may qualify for tax relief.	Requires a Presidential Declaration of Emergency or Disaster. IRS can postpone certain deadlines for taxpayers who reside or have a business in the disaster area. For instance, certain deadlines falling on or after Dec. 4, 2017 and before April 30, 2018, are granted additional time to file through April 30, 2018. This includes taxpayers who had a valid extension to file their 2017 return that was due to run out on April 17, 2017. It also includes the quarterly estimated income tax payments originally due on Jan. 16, 2018. It also includes tax-exempt organizations that operate on a calendar-year basis and had an automatic extension due to run out on Dec. 4, 2017. In addition, penalties on payroll and excise tax deposits due on or after Dec. 4, 2017, and before Dec. 19, 2017, will be abated as long as the deposits are made by Dec. 19, 2017.	Presidential Emergency or Disaster	The IRS automatically identifies taxpayers located in the covered disaster area and applies automatic filing and payment relief. But affected taxpayers who reside or have a business located outside the covered disaster area must call the IRS disaster hotline at 866-562-5227 to request this tax relief.
